Songs for September

This is our school song:

Aye yi yi yikus! No one is like us. We are the kids from Autumn Creek Learning Center. Always a winnin' Always a grinnin' and ready to say
"Hello, Goodbye

Stick your head in apple pie, ooey gooey chop suey cris cross apple sauce, moldy green jelly bean ding dong dinner time:

Brussels sprouts with chicken wing and now it's time for us to sing!
We are, We are Autumn Creek Learning Center! Rocking!

I am special I am me.

I have two hands two eyes to see.

A nose to smell, my ears hear well.

A mouth to talk and two legs to walk.

But that's not all, because you see.

I am special, I am me.

Dr. Dingle. Dr. Jingle, Dr. number nine (a call and response stand up song.)

When I woke up I was feeling fine

Cause I went to the doctor and the doctor said

Show me the rhythm in your head (tap your head 2X)

Repeat from the beginning and insert

show me the rhythm in your hands (clap your hands 2X)

Show me the rhythm in your feet (stomp your feet 2X)

Show me the rhythm your hips (sway and slap each hip)

Show me the rhythm everywhere (repeat all motions and put your arm in the air and shout "Hot Dog")

Getting To Know You is a song from the King and I musical by Rodgers and Hammerstein. I will show the book illustrated by Rosemary Wells and introduce that song and some other songs from Rodgers and Hammerstein to the children.
